

My parents and grandparents are from Zacatecas, Tijuana.

They came to live a better life and to find jobs. They had to walk and run through the desert.

Anonymous, California