Central America

My parents are from El Salvador and Honduras.

My grandparents are from El Salvador.

My parents are from Central America. They have told me about their struggles and their dreams about this country.

They said they escaped Central America because of the civil war.
Map of Central America

Anonymous, California